

The mission of the Victim Rights Law Center is to open the doors of the justice system to all sexual assault survivors regardless of income, age, disability, sexual orientation, or race and to prevent the socioeconomic harms that result from sexual assault.

As a result of a sexual assault...

I am worried about my physical safety.

I am concerned about my privacy and other people finding out about the assault.

I do not feel safe where I live.

I have financial and/or insurance problems.

If you are a victim of sexual assault, and you checked any of these boxes, please contact the Victim Rights Law Center for a FREE and CONFIDENTIAL legal consultation.

617-399-6720

legalhelp@victimrights.org

One of our attorneys can explain your legal options. If English is not your preferred language, we have on-site translators.

I am worried about school.

I am confused about the criminal or civil justice system.

I am worried about my job.

I am concerned about my immigration status.

Our Legal Services Are:

- ◆ free
- ◆ private & confidential
- ◆ available in spanish, french & haitian creole (and additional languages upon request)

The Victim Rights Law Center
321 Columbus Ave
Boston MA 02116
Phone: 617-399-6720
Fax: 617-399-6722
TTY: 617-492-6434
Email: legalservices@victimrights.org

This project was supported by Grant No. 2001-WL-BX-0033 awarded by the Violence Against Women Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Points of view in this document are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.

I like a stone thrown into calm water, sexual assault causes
a ripple effect throughout a victim's life.
Sexual assault can threaten a victim's physical safety, privacy, housing,
education, employment, financial security and immigration status.
Fortunately, there are legal remedies and free legal services that can help.